

Complaint Procedure

The TTA's Complaint Procedure is made available in the following locations:

- ✓ Agency website, either as a reference in the Notice of Nondiscrimination or in its entirety
 - ✓ Public areas of the agency office (common area, public meeting rooms, etc.)

Any person who believes they've been discriminated against on the basis of race, color or national origin, by TTA may file a complaint by completing and submitting TTA's Complaint Form.

The Complaint Form may also be used to submit general complaints to TTA.

TTA investigates complaints received no more than 180 business days after the alleged incident. TTA will process complaints that are complete.

Once the complaint is received, TTA will review the complaint and work to resolve the complaint informally, if possible.

If the complaint warrants a formal civil rights complaint process, TTA will follow the steps listed in this complaint procedure. The TTA may also use this formal procedure to address general complaints. If TTA determines it has jurisdiction the complainant will receive an acknowledgement letter stating the complaint will be investigated by TTA as a civil rights complaint.

The TTA has 15 business days to investigate the civil rights complaint. If more information is needed to resolve the case, TTA may contact the complainant.

The complainant has 15 business days from the date of the letter to send requested information to the investigator assigned to the case.

If the investigator is not contacted by the complainant or does not receive the additional information within 15 business days, TTA can administratively close the case. A case can be administratively closed also if the complainant no longer wishes to pursue their case.

After the investigator reviews the complaint, one of two (2) letters will be issued to the complainant: a closure letter or a letter of finding (LOF).

- ✓ A closure letter summarizes the allegations and states that there was not a Title VI violation and that the case will be closed.
- ✓ A letter of finding (LOF) summarizes the allegations and the interviews regarding the alleged incident, and explains whether any disciplinary action, additional training of the staff member, or other action will occur.

If the complainant wishes to appeal the decision, the complainant has 15 business days after the date of the letter or the LOF to do so.

A person may also file a complaint directly with the Federal Transit Administration, at FTA Office of Civil Rights, 1200 New Jersey Avenue SE, Washington, DC 20590.
